

Peninsula Enterprise.

ACCOMAC COURT HOUSE, VA.

SATURDAY, July 22, 1905.

JOHN W. EDMONDS, Editor and Owner.

LOCAL NEWS.

Board of Supervisors meet Monday, July 24th.

A change in schedule of N. Y. P. & N. R. R. appears in this issue.

The clearance sale of Ames, Mills & Co. appears in this issue. Read it.

Children's day service at Drummondtown M. E. Church, South, next Sunday night.

An excursion will be run from Folly Wharf to Metompkin Beach every Thursday by Capt. W. H. Lang. See advertisement.

Dr. W. W. Kerns will sell valuable oyster ground &c. by public auction at Bloxom Station, next Saturday, July 23d, 1 p. m.

Messrs. I. T. Johnson, Barton K. Lilliston, Charles Ayres and Phil Milliner spent several days last week at Atlantic City, N. J.

Miss Mary Lang entertained a party of her young friends at her home at Accomac C. H. on Wednesday evening, her eleventh birthday.

Mrs. Wm. J. Robertson, and Mr. Gordon Beecher, wife and son, of Baltimore, are at Willow Bank, guests of Mr. and Mrs. B. T. Gunter.

A change in the advertisement of W. S. Dickinson & Son appears in this issue of special interest to the ladies and children. Read it.

A fair will be held at Shiloh Baptist Church on Friday, August 4th, or if inclement weather prevents at that time on first fair day thereafter.

Thos. W. Blackstone, trustee, will sell at public auction on Saturday, July 23d, 3 p. m., at Gargatha, the valuable real estate of E. W. Barnes, situated at that place. For terms see posters.

Mrs. Elizabeth Gibbons, a highly respected lady, wife of Mr. A. J. Gibbons, died at her home near Woodberry last Sunday night, aged about 40 years. Her husband and three children survive her.

Edward Joyner, colored, sentenced to five years in the penitentiary at the July term of the circuit court, was taken to that institution Monday morning by Mr. C. Dombrock, messenger, formerly of this county.

Warner Ames, trustee, will sell at public auction on Saturday, August 5th, 3 p. m., in front of the hotel in Onancock, a certain house and lot situated in that town, of which John H. Sayers died seized and possessed.

Rev. Jno. K. Goode, accompanied by his wife, left to-day for a two weeks vacation and will not fill his appointments at Hollies on the 23rd, Baker Memorial on the 30th, nor at Drummondtown on either of these Sunday.

Judge Wm. Hodges Mann, of Nottaway, will address the people in the interest of his candidacy for Governor at Onancock, Friday night, July 28th; Pungoteague, Saturday, July 29th, 3:30 p. m.; Parksley, Saturday, July 29th, 8 p. m.

A boat race between the skipjacks, Oregon and Sea Girl, both owned by Capt. W. H. Lang, will take place at Metompkin Inlet on Saturday, July 22d, 12 o'clock. The race is merely for the fun there is in it for Capt. Lang and his friends.

A notice has been posted at Accomac over the signature of the sheriff to the effect, "that any person heard swearing or in any way using profane language in public on the streets of the town in any manner will be prosecuted as the law directs."

Mr. Werner Gardner, recently promoted to a clerkship in the passenger and freight department of the B. & C. & A. Ry. Co., Baltimore, accompanied by his wife and two children, is at Accomac C. H. visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Gardner.

Lee B. Kellam, sheriff, by virtue of an execution in his hands, will sell at public auction the entire stock of merchandise of Mears Bros., at Matton Hunk. The sale will begin next Tuesday, July 25th, 10 a. m., and continue from day to day until the stock is sold out.

The air brakes refusing to work caused a wreck on the N. Y. P. & N. R. R. on Monday afternoon last. The wreck occurred about two miles from Pocomoke City. Four freight cars piled up on each other, two of them being completely demolished. The cars were empty, however, and no one was hurt.

The storehouse at Modestown known for years as one of the best business places in the county is offered for sale and stock of goods therein for sale. See advertisement in another column and call on Mr. B. T. Hope, if you wish to secure a bargain in goods and to rent a storehouse located in one of the most prosperous sections of the county.

Mr. Thos. H. Johnson, of near Accomac C. H., not only leads as the first shipper of sweet potatoes this season from Accomac but occupies the first place, perhaps, as the grower of fine watermelons. No melon could have been finer at any season than a "Texas Sweet" left by him at this office early in the week.

An excursion, the first of the season, will be given from Cape Charles to Ocean City by N. Y. P. & N. R. R., on Thursday, July 27th. The train will leave Cape Charles at 7 a. m., and Ocean City on its return at 5:30 p. m. The fare for the round trip from Melba, and south will be $1.50 and from 5 to 25 cents less from other points. Train will not stop North of Princess Anne.

NEIGHBORHOOD NOTES.

Cape Charles.

Miss Grace Moorling, of Norfolk, is visiting Miss Nellie Warren.

Miss Mollie Broughton, of Pocomoke, is the guest of Mrs. U. W. Hine.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. King and son, Jim, were in New York this week.

Miss Annie Dougherty, of Crisfield, is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Hayman.

Miss Anne Crowder, of Keller, was the guest of the Misses Goffigon the early part of this week.

Miss Virginia Robinson and Mrs. Locke, of Washington, are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. White.

Mrs. Wm. G. Smith and little daughter and Miss Mary Emma Wilson left Friday for Natural Bridge to spend a couple of months.

The Artillery of Fort Monroe and the Northampton Country Club base ball teams will play a game of ball at the Club grounds Thursday, July 27.

A very fast game of baseball was played by the Northampton Country Club and the Artillery at Fort Monroe Saturday, the score being 1 to 0 in favor of the soldiers.

Mrs. Carl Herdie and son Jack and Master Charles Horton, of Williamsport, Pa., who have been the guests of Major and Mrs. John Goffigon, returned home Wednesday.

In the Circuit Court, in session at Eastville last week, R. H. Berry was given judgment for $1,000 damages against the N. Y. P. & N. for injuries received while in the employ of the N. Y. P. & N. at this place.

Mr. James G. Nesbit, who for nearly two years, was stenographer in the office of the superintendent of the N. Y. P. & N. here, has accepted a position with the Pennsylvania Railroad, at Broad Street Station, Philadelphia.

At Pocomoke Tuesday the Pocomoke baseball team shut out the Northampton Country Club by a score of 4 to 0. This is the second game between these teams, each having a victory to its credit. The deciding game will be played here in a very short while.

Wilmore Robbs, the negro who was shot by Sergeant Taylor on the steamer "Pennsylvania" Tuesday of last week while resisting arrest, died at St. Vincent's Hospital Friday. A coroner's jury held an inquest and rendered a verdict that the man came to his death by being shot by Sergeant Taylor, who was justified in the shooting.

Chincoteague.

The Atlantic Hotel is filled to its utmost capacity.

Mr. Grover Watson and Miss Airey Jones were married on the 20th. inst.

Mr. Jacob Brasure was the successful bidder for the 19th. inst. store business.

Messrs. C. F. Matthews and John Richardson are spending the week at Atlantic City.

Mrs. Mollie King, son and daughter, of Washington, D. C., are visiting her father, Dr. N. S. Smith.

Mrs. Alfred Hudson, daughter and grand-daughter are spending the summer with her brother, Mr. D. J. Wheaton.

Messrs. Wm. Messick, William Scott and John L. Anderson, Jr., are spending the week in Wilmington and Philadelphia.

Schooners Maggie Davis and Scarbrough arrived this week from Philadelphia with cargoes of coal and are unloading same here.

Mr. Daniel Hill and Miss Minnie Watson were married on the 19th. inst., Rev. Mr. Farley of the Baptist Church officiating.

Mr. A. T. Sharpley, wholesale commission merchant of Philadelphia, and family are at the home of Mr. S. J. Mumford for the summer.

Rev. G. P. Jones, wife and daughter, of Milford, Del., are here the guests of Capt. Jos. M. Feddeman and family. Mr. and Mrs. Minter are visiting her father, Mr. Geo. Hancock.

Arrivals at Atlantic Hotel this week: E. F. Waters, W. J. Kennerly, S. Shultz, J. T. Powell, Baltimore; H. P. Pearce, Philadelphia; J. P. Hyde, Wilmington; W. A. Beach, New York; A. B. Guillet, Richmond; J. E. W. Fallen, Washington; G. W. Deane and wife, Norfolk; H. C. Simpson, Jersey City; C. E. Davis, Laurel; Chas. Husted, Milford; A. H. Howard, Berlin; M. Byrd, S. W. Nock, Jr., W. G. Matthews, H. C. Watson, L. W. Mears, T. P. Patchell, Accomac.

Flappsville.

Miss Bertha Smith is home spending her vacation.

Mr. Chas. Ewell, Sr., will occupy his dwelling in town next year.

The Irish potato crop a complete failure with us from a money standpoint.

Our crops are failing very fast on account of a severe drought in this section.

Mr. Scott, a worthy citizen of our town, died the first part of the month aged about 81.

Hand-line fishing is reported to be very good, and some of our folks go down very often.

George Nelson is home from the fishing grounds of New Jersey for a stay of a week or more.

Mrs. John L. Rayfield is in the Sarah Leigh Hospital, Norfolk, for treatment at this writing.

Our former townsman, John M. Bloxom, arrived home Sunday morning after a pleasant visit to his son, Fred, in Seattle, Washington. He visited while on the slope the Portland Exposition, and gives a glowing description of his trip.

Onancock.

Miss Baker, of Emporia, Va., is the guest of Miss Eva Hopkins.

Miss Stella Crockett has as her guest Miss Cammie Rider, of Richmond.

Mr. Edgar Sydenstricker has returned from a visit in the Southwest.

Miss Annie Hopkins has returned from a visit to relatives in Northampton.

Rev. and Mrs. W. C. Bell spent several days in Baltimore and Washington, lately.

Misses Vida and Hattie Kelley, of Salisbury, and Annie Fosseque are spending a week at Hotel Wachapreague.

Mrs. Fannie Kathan, of Hotel Monroe, Portsmouth, Va., is at the home of her cousin, Mrs. G. Frederick Kelly.

Mrs. Wm. Joyner, who for some time has been visiting relatives on the Shore, left Saturday to join Mrs. Thibbe Hanse at Blue Ridge Summit, Pa.

The Uniform Public School examination, under the supervision of Supt. Joyner, were held in the High School Tuesday and Wednesday. About sixty persons took the examinations.

The intense heat of the past week has caused many of our citizens to seek the seashore. A number of beach parties have reported the great increase in the facilities for comfort on Cedar Island since Mr. Gordon Mears has opened Island House.

Mrs. Chauncey Leatherbury was taken to Baltimore Monday to undergo an operation. She is now at University Hospital and is reported as doing as well as could be expected. Mr. Leatherbury, Mrs. T. C. Kellam and Mr. Will Kellam accompanied her.

Mrs. Monie Leatherbury died suddenly Wednesday evening of heart failure caused by the heat, aged 68 years. Her death is a shock to the community where she is highly respected and honored. Mrs. Leatherbury was a consistent member of the Baptist Church, in the work of which she will be greatly missed.

The entertainment given for the benefit of the Episcopal Church on the lawn of Mr. R. L. Shield's home, Melrose, Tuesday night, was a success from all points of consideration. The one-act drama "The Chums" was creditably rendered by Misses Octavia Geiger and Rowena Holmes, Messrs. Wilbur Shield, Henry Powell and Ralph Rich.

On Wednesday, July 26th, beginning at 2 p. m., there will be a church fair at Bethel Baptist Church. Seasonable refreshments will be for sale. Supper will be served in high style and at moderate prices. A good time is promised. Proceeds for parsonage repairs. If Wednesday is a bad day come Thursday at same hour.

Committee.

The members of the Atlantic M. P. Church will hold a fair and festival July 25th, beginning at 2 p. m., with entertainment at barrel factory at 8 o'clock. There will be plenty of refreshments of all kinds and a good supper will be served at moderate prices. Owing to the hard times the admission will be 10 cents. Come one and all, help a good cause and spend a pleasant time with us. If Tuesday is a bad day come next fair day.

Committee.

Woman's Missionary Union.

The sixth annual meeting of the Woman's Missionary Union of the Accomac Baptist Association will be held on Tuesday, August 1st, with the Pungoteague Church, (Holly's). The meeting will last all day and dinner will be served on the grounds.

All ladies who expect to come by train will get off at Keller, and in order that they may be met at the station, are requested to write to Miss H. A. Battelle, Sec., Boggs, Va.

Committee.

The Methodist excursion.

The Methodist of Drummondtown and community desire to thank Capt. W. H. Lang for his generous gift of an excursion to the beach on Thursday, 20th. The day was almost ideal for such a trip; the number in attendance was large, and everything went "merry as marriage bells." We greatly appreciate the Captain's many kindness and also the patronage of the many in attendance that were not Methodists. The trip netted about $80.00.

Committee.

Notice to Delegates to District Conference.

Delegates to the Eastern Shore District Conference will be met at Exmore Station, one and one half miles from Belle Haven, the seat of the Conference, Tuesday and Wednesday, July 25 and 26. All delegates who expect to attend will please notify us at once. Those who come in their own conveyances will have suitable accommodations provided by giving me due notice.

James H. Moss.

Communicated.

Editor of the Enterprise:—The charge has been made that Hon. Jos. E. Willard, one of the candidates for the Democratic nomination for Governor at the approaching primary was opposed to the "Jim Crow Law" and used his influence against the passage of the same. Will you or some reader of the Enterprise please give the facts?

Voter.

For sale car, of flour middlings at $22.00 per ton; one planer and lath saw less than half cost; also heavy log wagon. Truck barrels delivered at 17 cents each.

A. F. Mears.

Florida shingles—We have just received two cars of shingles, assorted sizes, Call and look at them if you need any.

T. S. Hopkins & Co., Tasley, Va.

Parksley.

Miss Lella Dickerson, of Sanford, is at the home of Mr. T. I. Kent.

Miss Mattie Day, of Maryland, is the guest of Miss Bessie Mason.

Miss Stella Scott is spending the week with relatives at Guilford.

Mrs. W. B. Judeford and son, Lee, are visiting her parents near Baltimore.

Mr. Keating Dever, of Washington, spent a few days with friends here the early part of the week.

Messrs. J. T. Phillips, Willie Westsells and Master Edward Pate are on the sick list this week.

Mr. R. T. Bundick, who has been spending his vacation with his parents near here, has returned to New York.

Messrs. Hill and George L. McCready are in South Eastern part of Virginia and Eastern North Carolina, respectively, taking orders for their patent sweet potato vine cutter.

Some of our farmers have begun to ship sweet potatoes. Mr. W. T. Wesells dug 40 bbls. Monday from 7,300 sprouts and sold the most of them to local buyers for $5.00 per bbl.

Miss Aileen Hogan gave a peanut party Wednesday afternoon in honor of her friend, Miss Hila, Boyer of Baltimore, at which all the children of the town between the age of 5 and 12 years were invited.

Capt. James S. Taylor, formerly of this county, now Captain of the ferry lines of the Pennsylvania R. R. at New York, has been enjoying his vacation of late with his brother and other friends near here.

The Parksley Bank building committee, composed of H. Thos. Mason, J. H. Hopkins, J. W. Chandler and Dr. P. Drummond made a tour of inspection of the banks of the Eastern Shore of Maryland this week for the purpose of selecting a plan for their new building to be erected here at an early date.

Church Entertainments.

The Baker Memorial Baptist Sunday School will have a picnic and supper at Bunting's Point on July 26, beginning at 2 p. m. Refreshment in abundance. A number of boats will be on hand to convey passengers to the beach. There will also be a boat race. Come and enjoy yourself.

Committee.

On Wednesday, July 26th, beginning at 2 p. m., there will be a church fair at Bethel Baptist Church. Seasonable refreshments will be for sale. Supper will be served in high style and at moderate prices. A good time is promised. Proceeds for parsonage repairs. If Wednesday is a bad day come Thursday at same hour.

Committee.

The members of the Atlantic M. P. Church will hold a fair and festival July 25th, beginning at 2 p. m., with entertainment at barrel factory at 8 o'clock. There will be plenty of refreshments of all kinds and a good supper will be served at moderate prices. Owing to the hard times the admission will be 10 cents. Come one and all, help a good cause and spend a pleasant time with us. If Tuesday is a bad day come next fair day.

Committee.

Woman's Missionary Union.

The sixth annual meeting of the Woman's Missionary Union of the Accomac Baptist Association will be held on Tuesday, August 1st, with the Pungoteague Church, (Holly's). The meeting will last all day and dinner will be served on the grounds.

All ladies who expect to come by train will get off at Keller, and in order that they may be met at the station, are requested to write to Miss H. A. Battelle, Sec., Boggs, Va.

Committee.

The Methodist excursion.

The Methodist of Drummondtown and community desire to thank Capt. W. H. Lang for his generous gift of an excursion to the beach on Thursday, 20th. The day was almost ideal for such a trip; the number in attendance was large, and everything went "merry as marriage bells." We greatly appreciate the Captain's many kindness and also the patronage of the many in attendance that were not Methodists. The trip netted about $80.00.

Committee.

Notice to Delegates to District Conference.

Delegates to the Eastern Shore District Conference will be met at Exmore Station, one and one half miles from Belle Haven, the seat of the Conference, Tuesday and Wednesday, July 25 and 26. All delegates who expect to attend will please notify us at once. Those who come in their own conveyances will have suitable accommodations provided by giving me due notice.

James H. Moss.

Communicated.

Editor of the Enterprise:—The charge has been made that Hon. Jos. E. Willard, one of the candidates for the Democratic nomination for Governor at the approaching primary was opposed to the "Jim Crow Law" and used his influence against the passage of the same. Will you or some reader of the Enterprise please give the facts?

Voter.

For sale car, of flour middlings at $22.00 per ton; one planer and lath saw less than half cost; also heavy log wagon. Truck barrels delivered at 17 cents each.

A. F. Mears.

Florida shingles—We have just received two cars of shingles, assorted sizes, Call and look at them if you need any.

T. S. Hopkins & Co., Tasley, Va.

CIRCUIT COURT PROCEEDINGS.

July Term 1905.

Floyd Bros., who sue &c. vs. Jno. B. Floyd's ex'or. et als. Decree for withdrawal of interest, payment of taxes and costs and balance to life tenant, Bettie Floyd.

Sponcer F. Rogers et als. vs. John T. Finney et al. Decree directing special commissioner to check on bank for fund therein and to pay same, less costs and taxes to foreign guardian of infant plaintiff, Frederick W. Hopkins.

Wm. Harrison Lewis et als. vs. Susan E. Lewis et als. Decree authorizing withdrawal of purchaser's 2d installment bond, for payment of costs &c. and distribution amongst creditors.

Luther Jas. Scott, judgment creditor, who sues &c. vs. Scott & Hurst et als. Decree referring cause to commissioner in chancery.

Crockett & Wallace, who sue &c. vs. Jas. Milton Marshall's admr. et als. Decree confirming report of L. Floyd Nock, special commissioner, for conveyance to purchaser, payment of costs, attorney's fee and distribution.

Fred W. Hopkins' gdn. vs. Fred W. Hopkins &c. Order authorizing petitioner, foreign guardian, to receive and remove part of the estate of her ward.

Edward T. Hinman vs. Geo. W. Hinman et als. Decree confirming report of special commissioner.

Catharine W. Abbott et als. vs. Geo. W. Garrett et als. Decree removing cause from trial docket.

Ex parte: Sam'l. T. Ross, admr. of Jno. W. Johnson, deceased, c. t. a. on petition. Order allowing petition to be filed directing payment of costs and legacies.

Jno. W. Heath's committee vs. Jno. W. Heath and others. Decree confirming report of Ivy G. Elmore, special commissioner, and removing cause from docket.

Jas. B. Mears and Sallie E., his wife, vs. Charles B. Ross et als. Decree for specific performance of contract.

O. L. Parker, cashier of the First National Bank of Onancock, vs. Walter K. Scott et als. Decree for recovery of amount due plaintiff.

E. H. Hayman & Bro. vs. Scott & Hurst et al. Order for recovery by plaintiff &c.

L. Thomas Lecato, trustee and others vs. Sallie F. Lecato and others. Decree confirming report of commissioner in chancery, appointing G. Walter Mapp and L. Thos. Lecato special commissioners, partition and for taxation of costs.

Patrick W. Killmon's admrs. c. t. a. vs. Margaret F. Killmon and others. Decree confirming report of commissioner in chancery, for judgment and costs and appointing S. Jas. Turlington and G. Walter Mapp, special commissioners, for sale &c.

Wm. Thos. Rogers and others vs. Fred W. Hopkins. Decree confirming report of special commissioner, for conveyance, payment of costs and &c. and distribution.

Elisha Crockett, judgment creditor, who sues &c. vs. Noah W. Crockett. Decree requiring defendant to vacate premises sold in this suit and in default of such vacation, directing sheriff to eject defendant, for payment of costs &c.

Louis C. F. Boggs vs. Louis H. Boggs et als. Decree referring cause to commissioner in chancery.

Elizabeth Parks by next friend vs. Henry F. Parks. Decree removing cause from docket.

Ex parte: Petition of Elizabeth Hickman's ex'or. Order confirming report of Stewart K. Powell, attorney for Geo. Thomas Twyford.

Wm. Preston Marshall by next friend vs. Jas. M. Marshall and wife &c. Decree confirming report of L. Floyd Nock, special commissioner.

The Wm. J. Hooper Co., which sues &c. vs. Jno. P. Pruitt et als. Decree removing cause from docket.

Chas. Collins, judgment creditor, who sues &c. vs. Thomas Bowden, Decree removing cause from docket.

Thos. W. Blackstone, substituted trustee vs. Eugene W. Barnes and wife et als. Decree determining the ownership of certain property, for recovery of plaintiff's costs and removing cause from docket.

Franklin C. Lewis vs. Geo. T. Hall and wife &c. Decree of reference.

Ex parte: Petition of Lloyd T. Bowden &c.'s late guardian. Order referring cause to commissioner in chancery to ascertain amount due each of children of late Bowden.

L. Floyd Nock vs. L. Floyd Nock, trustee. Order postponing cause and granting leave to file answer within 15 days from adjournment of court.

Elizabeth Seymour's ex'or. vs. Alfred H. Ames and wife et als. Decree confirming 4 reports of S. T. Ross, commissioner in chancery.

John E. T. Window's ex'or. vs. Wilbur T. Window, on a petition. Order confirming report of S. T. Ross, attorney &c., and removing cause from docket.

Arthur W. Wright and wife et als. vs. Teackle H. Taylor and wife et als. Decree confirming the report of S. Jas. Turlington and N. B. Wescott, special commissioners, and removing cause from docket.

Geo. T. Ames and wife et als. vs. Richard A. Turlington and wife et als. Decree confirming report of S. Jas. Turlington, special commissioner.

Ex parte: The petition of N. B. Wescott, trustee. Decree confirming report of commissioner in chancery, directing payment of costs, distribution &c.

Howard Lee James and Margaret Emma James, infants under 21 years of age, who sue by Wm. C. West, their next friend, vs. Mary Susan James et als. Decree of reference to commissioner in chancery.

Elisha Crockett, judgment creditor, who sues &c. vs. Noah W. Crockett. Order of attachment.

Ask for Bunk Trower, with New York Clothing House, 102 & 104 Baltimore St., Balto. Md., the largest retail clothing house in Baltimore. Tailor made suits to order.

Valuable Oyster Ground at Public Auction.

A valuable piece of oyster ground, situated in Old Womans Bay, containing 22.09 acres, with about 2,300 bushels of oysters most of which can be gotten off next winter and 2,600 bushels of shells planted two years ago thereon, together with a splendid oyster house furnished complete, scows, &c., will be sold at public auction at Bloxom by Dr. W. W. Kerns on Saturday, July 22nd, 1 p. m.

Fleeting County School Board.

There will be a meeting of County School Board at Accomac C. H., Monday, August 7th, 9:30 a. m. Full meeting urgently requested. Clerks please come prepared to settle with County Treasurer. Respectfully G. G. Joyner, Supt.

Resolutions of Respect.

At a recent session of the Sunday School of Oak Grove M. E. Church, South, a committee was appointed to draft the following resolutions:

Whereas, it has pleased God to remove from our midst our dear friend and sister, Mrs. Mary E. Turlington; therefore be it resolved:

1st. That while we bow in submission to His will who is too wise to err, we realize that we have lost in her a helpful and devoted member of our church, Sunday school and choir.

2nd. That we extend our deepest sympathy to the husband and children of our departed sister, and pray that her life-long friend may be there,